DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 7, 2008 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

Receipt of the Amendments, filed on July 9, 2007 and March 19, 2008, is acknowledged.

Cancellation of claims 43-55, 68, 70-72 and 101 has been entered.

Claims 1-42, 56-67, 69, 73-100 and 102-106 are pending in the instant application.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-42, 56-67, 69, 73-100 and 102-106 are allowed over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Original patented claims 1-42 stand allowed.

Regarding claim 56, the references of the Prior Art of record fails to teach or suggest the combination of the limitations as set forth in claim 56, and specifically comprising the limitations of an electron-emission layer having an electron-emission region included in at least a portion thereof, said electron-emission region containing an electrical discontinuity, at least a portion of said electron-emission layer extending from a surface of the first electrode to a surface of the second electrode, for emitting an electron from the electron-emission region upon an application of a low voltage across said first and second electrodes, a matrix wire configuration comprising row wires and column wires respectively corresponding to the rows and columns of the electron emission elements arranged in the matrix, a signal applier, arranged for applying a scan signal to the row wires, and a modulation signal to the column wires corresponding to the scanned electron emission elements, to cause a low voltage to be applied across the first ad second electrodes of each electron emission element, wherein the signal applier applies the modulation signal to the column wires in synchronization with the application of the scan signal to the row wires.

Regarding claims 57-67, claims 57-67 are allowable for the reasons given in claim 56 because of their dependency status from claim 56.

Regarding claims 69, 73 and 85, the references of the Prior Art of record fails to teach or suggest the combination of the limitations as set forth in claims 69, 73 and 85, and specifically comprising the limitations of the electron source plate also comprising a matrix configuration of a plurality of row wires and N column wires respectively corresponding to the rows and columns of the electron-emitting devices arranged in a matrix, each of the rows and columns of the electron-emitting devices arranged in the matrix, each of said N column wires being connected exclusively to a corresponding one of N column leads, and a voltage applier disposed outside of the housing (or leads extending from inside of said housing to outside of said housing as stated in claim 85) and arranged for applying a scan signal to the row wires, a modulation signal to column wires, and an acceleration voltage to the acceleration electrode, the modulation signal comprising a series of one-row data of image data which is to be assigned to the N column wires and each one-row data image data in the series being sequentially applied one-row data by one-row data to the N column leads in synchronization with the scan signal.

Regarding claims 100, 102 and 103, claims 100, 102 and 103 are allowable for the reasons given in claim 69 because of their dependency status from claim 69.

Art Unit: 2879

Regarding claims 74-84 and 104-106, claims 74-84 and 104-106 are allowable for the reasons given in claim 73 because of their dependency status from claim 73.

Regarding claims 86-99, claims 86-99 are allowable for the reasons given in claim 85 because of their dependency status from claim 85.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
